GENERAL GEORGE W. DAVIS ON WAY TO PHILIPPINES

RIGADIER GENERAL GEORGE W. DAVIS is among the passengers for Manila aboard the United States transport Hancock, which arrived in this port from San Francisco yesterday, en route to the Philippines, via Guam.

General Davis' eighteen months' tenure of the office of Military Governor of Porto Rico was terminated by the withdrawal of most of the American troops from Porto Rico, which becomes a division of the Army Department of the East. General Davis has been ordered to report to General MacArthur and will act as Inspector General in the Philippines. General Davis has a distinguished war record and also ranks high as an administrator and diplomat among military men. He was for a time president of the War Records Commission and was military adviser to former Secretary of War Lamont.
Five years ago, when he was only a Major, he was prominently mentioned for promotion to the position of Quartermaster General of the Army. General Davis is 61 years old, has been a soldier thirty-eight years and will be retired in 1903. He entered the service from civil life, serving first as sergeant in a regiment of Connecticut volunteers. In the course of the Civil War he was steadily promoted, and in 1865 was breveted Major General of Volunteers. He participated in many engagements in the War of the Rebellion and among the staff positions he held was that of aide-de-camp to the Lieutenant General of the Army, with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. Since the Civil War Davis has been continuously in the regular service, and the recent military action of the United States has brought him, together with numerous other officers of the army, conspicuously into public notice. He was a member of the court that investigated the beef scandal after the Santiago campaign.

THE NEWS OF THE COURTS OF HAWAII

Bishop's Bank Sues Samuel Kaaumoana and Kanoe
Kaaumoana

S. M. Damon, S. E. Damon and Henry E. Waity, copartners as Bishop & Co., have brought suit against Samuel Kaaumoana and Kanoe Kaaumoana, for foreclosure of mortgage on property located in Pauoa Valley. The defendants gave a note for $600 on their property in 1895, when C. R. Bishop was connected with the bank; there is yet due on the note $614.48, including interest. Two notes were subsequently given for $600 and $530 respectively, the first of which has been paid, but no payments have been made on the second. A mortgage in fee simple is held by the bank, and they ask for a full payment of the amounts due, together with the cost of the foreclosure, or in default thereof, pray that the property be sold and the proceeds applied to the payment of the notes.

Victoria Fernandes has brought suit for divorce against her husband, Peter Fernandes, for failure to provide subsistence. She says that they were married at Ewa, September 17, 1887, and have ever since been husband and wife. For five years, she alleges, her husband has failed to provide for her needs, and she has been compelled to support herself and three minor chilren by washing clothes and sewing for others, notwithstanding libelous insults in constant receipt of wages. On November 1 he wilfully deserted the libellant, so the wife alleges. She asks for an absolute divorce.

The Circuit Court denied the motion of the plaintiff in the case of Kealoha and Kapela vs. Namokueuo Ewaliko, wherein judgment upon the pleadings was asked. The action was brought to cancel a deed, and for a reconveyance.
Harry Armitage, administrator of the estate of Frank Peroutke, deceased, filed an inventory of the estate showing that the dead man's jewelry consisting of three silver spectacles, four watch chains, thirteen finger rings, as valued at $30. There was also $74.60 cash received from the deputy high sheriff, and 100 shares of Waiwala assessable stock, 60 per cent paid up, of the par value of $100.

Alexander Maiho, who has reached his majority, has applied for a partition of the property of Alexander Maiho, his father. He is a resident of Honolulu. William and Lilly Maiho, his brother and sister, respectively, are confined as lepers at the Leper Settlement on the Island of Molokai, and are the heirs of Alexander W. Maiho.
They are also of full age. Hualani and George Maiho are residents of Honolulu, aged nineteen and seventeen, respectively. The property is in Honolulu and on Kauai. The complainant says he is entitled to an undivided one-fifth share of said real property. The court is asked to make a judicious partition of all the lands.

Henry Smith, clerk of the Supreme Court, has filed a judgment record in favor of the plaintiff in the action of the Kapiohoni Estate, Ltd., vs. S. A. Bu-ni, for $128.75, together with $17.07, as commissions and costs, as decreed by the Supreme Court.

J. M. Camara, administrator of the estate of A. G. Cunha, has filed his account showing receipts at $340, and expenditures, $214.25, leaving a balance of $125.75.

Gehring & Butzke, the plumbers, have brought suit in the Circuit Court against Lee Chu, for $210.02 for plumb-ing goods, which they claim to have sold to the defendant.

In the Supreme Court yesterday the was given a hearing.
Manoa Valley water rights controversy.
Motion for re-argument in the Merriott case was heard and the case submitted.

Briefs in the case of Scott vs. Nahale were submitted.

The last case on the Supreme Court calendar—Bartlett vs. Hawaiian Carriage Company—was heard and submitted.

The term of the Supreme Court expired yesterday.
